A SNIPPET OF A CLIENT'S EMAIL FRANCE & TURKEY

Headwater Cycling Tour: met by Michael & Marie at Chissay Railway station who we connected with immediately (Marie is French and Michael is from the UK and extremely cute!) Driven to our accommodation at Chissay Chateau - it was a castle! Michael and Marie briefed us and fitted us for our bikes. They were fabulous bikes. This was the most amazing adventure - we had to read our own maps and find our way to the next accommodation. We cycled through beautiful French villages, forests, wheat and poppy fields. The weather was perfect for cycling at this time of the year in France - approx 22 degrees. The accommodation was excellent. We found the French people have a lot of respect for cyclists. We may need to remind you that this was a gastronomic cycling tour and we are delighted to report that the food was beyond our wildest imagination! Extraordinary food and beautiful wines. This is an excellently run cycling tour with great support! The Istanbul hotel was excellent (we loved the pool) and its location. Anatolia Houses Hotel at Capadoccia was amazing - we had a fabulous cultural experience, met some lovely people and had tea with the owner of the hotel (who just happened to be number 1 on our list of best looking Turkish men!). We had the best time with all the tour guides - they were excellent - we enjoyed their company as much as they enjoyed ours and are keeping in touch by email. We loved the friendliness of the Turkish people, their sense of humour and of course the food and wine. We made many friends and may return in a years' time to revisit as we realise there is a lot more to see. Thank you Pip for organising this trip for us which had it challenges. Please thank Andrew for his advice and assistance with the Turkey leg. We had a fabulous time with lots of laughs and it is a holiday that we will never forget.

Kindest regards,
Wendy and Sue

SPLENDID SLOVENIA

KAREN JONES' TRIP

I have recently returned from a fabulous trip to Slovenia. A very small, stunning country situated on the mediterranean coast and bordering Hungary, Austria and Croatia which has so much to offer every traveller. We covered quite considerable ground while we were there including the small but very picturesque coastline and beautiful quaint little fishing villages. We also visited Ljubljana, the capital, a small university town with it's cobble stoned streets leading to a castle on top of the hill. A brisk 15 minute walk to the castle is a must to experience the stunning views... I also experienced Lake Bled, a real highlight of the trip, so picturesque. We stayed on a farm very close to Bled which was an experience definitely not to be missed.

My favourite memory of the trip was a picnic lunch we had behind a small church on the top of a hill overlooking the countryside with the snow capped Julian Alps in the background... absolutely stunning! If you have any questions or are considering including Slovenia in your next holiday please do not hesitate to contact me at Karen@ajtravel.com.au
